Juror's Comments: What a wonderful theme for an art show. This show inspired great creativity. The artists were challenged to look at things in a different way, looking up or down through smaller eyes. The execution shows the thought process of the creative mind. The artists are to be commended that they thought outside of the box, a new idea that they were unfamiliar with. This was an interesting show to jury.

James Boldt – May 23, 2014

TWAL Show

Peoples Choice Award

JOAN PALOMBI Early Spring at Toledo Botanical Garden

Artist of the Month: Betsy Ford

In high school I loved working in the Art Department. My Art teacher got tired of signing my pass to go to the Art Department, so he taught me his signature so I could leave study hall to go to the Art room. He even entered one of my paintings in a New York City high school art show!

When I went to college, my Mother told me that art was a nice hobby, but I was going to college for an education, so the only art course that I took was Art History. When I could no longer play tennis, I took up art as an old lady by taking a course at The Toledo Museum of Art, in watercolor painting, which I had always admired. I joined the Toledo Artists' Club and Spectrum and I have taken many workshops with local and national artists in lovely places in Maine and New England as well as here in Toledo. I was invited to join Athena in 2004 and was admitted to the Northwestern Ohio Water color Society. I won an Honorable Mention in the first NOWS Show I entered. I became President of NOWS, have been in many juried shows at the Toledo Artists' Club and Spectrum and the Area Artist show at the Toledo Museum of Art. I have occasionally won awards. I have sold many paintings to friends and acquaintances, and a few to complete strangers! I do paint on commission, but mostly I paint outside on trips around the country and Europe. I had a booth at the University of Toledo Art on the Mall Fair, and most recently at the Sylvania Chamber of Commerce Show at Lourdes College. I still love watercolors and also pastels.

Get Involved

The Club needs someone to be in charge of finding and coordinating volunteers to help fold the sketchpad for mailing once a month. Time required about one hour and every little bit helps. Call Cynthia at 419 531 4079 or email to toledoartist@sbcglobal.net.
