

Small House Christmas Tree Decoration Challenge

Where? TAC studio, TBG, Toledo, Ohio.

When? Saturday, July 22nd from 10:00 am to mid-afternoon. If you accept this challenge and make a small house, please donate your creation to TAC for Heralding the Holiday.

Who? All TAC Members ... Maybe go home and make some more houses to donate to TAC for Heralding the Holiday.

Cost? $1.00 donation to TAC for notecard paper-house, pattern and page of instructions (copyright to TAC by Norma F. Thomas-Herr).

What to Bring? Your lunch, beverage, etc., etc., etc. And all your craft stuff (old paintings, paper, fabric, magazines, paper and fabric scissors, bangles, babbles, foil, tacky craft glue, craft stuff, and so forth, etc.) that you are going to use to cover your small house tree decoration for the challenge!!!! We will have fun and hopefully lots of laughs!!!!

Leader? Norma F. Thomas-Herr, long time and really old TAC member, watercolor artist and loooooonnnnggggg time crafter!!!!

WHY?? To generate income to sustain the TAC Clubhouse!!

The challenge will be to bring your "craft side" to the classroom to assemble some small tree decorations in shape of really small paper houses, using glitter and all of the above craft items, to sell during Heralding the Holiday event at the Toledo Botanical Garden, 12/01/17 and 12/02/17. Bring your creative imagination and let that imagination flow through your hands and fingers ... there will be no wrong way to create these decorations during this challenge!!!

Call or e-mail the club, toledoartist@sbcglobal.net, to reserve your space!!!!
